

I am against the proposed expansion of media giants. This will hurt small media companies that can not compete with the media giants. Pirate Radio will be the only alternative left after the consolidation of media. If you want to control the media, there are easier ways of doing this.